The Board of Directors of F5 Project is aware of recent media coverage regarding compensation-related advances disclosed on the organization's IRS Form 990. We want to reaffirm our commitment to transparency, public trust, and full compliance with all applicable legal and reporting requirements.

The matter in question involves compensation-related advances which were properly disclosed on the IRS Form 990 as required. These advances are being repaid according to documented schedules, with no defaults, forgiveness, or interest applied.

Following review with legal, accounting, and tax advisors, the board has confirmed that the organization's actions and disclosures align with applicable legal and reporting requirements. Importantly, these matters have had no impact on service delivery, contract performance, or compliance obligations.

We remain steadfast in our commitment to lawful operations, accountability, and maintaining the confidence of our partners. If you have any questions, need clarification, or would like to discuss further, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@f5project.org.

Sincerely,

F5 Project Board of Directors
